HOW SAM PEARSALL

hat don't blow nowhar.'

peared like I was liable '.'

mought 'a' happened.

things was started.

to hisself an' profit to the house.

on, an' it sho'

"But them days I wa'n't so p'tic'lar, Old Man Greenlaw. not havin' had 's much 'xper'ence, like I said. But I hain't never been sorry what they was lookers on that night, bein's Sam was one on 'em, like I OUICK WORK WITH A JACK done said afo',

"They was the three house players an' three o' them planters what I was tellin' about into the game. One on 'em was Squire Hapgood what's been c'nsid'able 'ntelligence d'srovidence done cated in Arkansas City, him livin' a tol'able good p'ducer ever sinc't I lonigh enough to come to town some but the others was f'm come'res further up the State. I disremember their names, but one on 'em another his friends called Shorty, 'count o'

three or fo' mo' in the back room a him not bein' full size. "He was a peppery cuss, though, an' toted two guns. Had a way o' pullin' 'em both to one't, bein' 's he shot left In daily homage, twice, beneath thy handed 's good 's right. Tother one was a big man, kyind o' slow startin', but a holy terror when he got a-goin'. 'Come a hand when it was easy seen f'm the bettin' afo' the draw what they'd be things a diddin', an' a'ter the draw they sho' was ser'ous. Blaisdell was dealin', an' c'ordin' to what he said a'terward everythin' 'd a been all right if Winterbottom 'd a had mo' into it 'n | confidence into him, but Jake didn't know him so well 's he did late. on, so that was nachul.

"Jake helt a pat straight an' fo' on was hearts, but the jack was a club. Blaisdell's idee was to keep him in afo' the draw, an' then let him see f'm what t'other players took what a say nothin' straight wa'n't no good. He reckoned 'd see what it was up to him to discyard the jack an' pull one, makin' straight flush, but as I said, Jake foolish didn't know Blaisdell's play 's well 's way it does, he come to know it later, an' he come c'nsid'able benefits into nigh upsettin' everythin'.

an' I dunno but what under the guns. Shorty trailed, havin' I not some a full house but not wantin' to drive one on em in p'tic'lar my the others out. Hapgood throwed I ain't got no kick down, an' the big feller rose it, havin' comia', even if they was a few val- threes. Then Jake giv' it another eers drowned when the levee boost an' Blaisdell throwed down kickin' Bassett in the shins fo' him to "They was c'nsid'able few planters stay an' help Jake along.

"Bassett understood, an' he boosted away f'm home when the river some on 'em stayed into Ar- ag'in, not havin' on'y a pair. Then till the floods was over. Shorty give a whoop an' made it a toted some tol'able good sized hundred mo'. The big man studied a I never done a better busi- spell an' traffed. 'Peared like he over-An' they was played three aces, but he was gen'ly a game in the back room every night, lucky in the draw, an' I reckon he As the Good Book says, 'It's a ill counted on that. "Winterbottom seen what a straight was one o' them games, wa'n't no hand to go no further on, but what come nigh t' 'stroyin' he trailed an' Bassett closed the pot, ovidence, 'n' everythin' makin' somepin' over $2,000 in the hat makes life with livin'. I middle o' the table, an' I begin to git worried. I didn't had no gre't house hadn't had 's much 'xper'ence then 's roll them days, an' I seen what if the I m'raclous imposition o' circumstants "Well. Bassett drawed two, not what set in onexpected I dunno what wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se liable to be no good, bein's Shorty wouldn't a played like he done 'thouten aggravation o' talent playin' fo' the ise, what they is now. Jim Blaishe was better 'n a straight, but a'ter I seen right the big man drawed two Jake studied away when I seen him playin' poker, the big men drawed what he'd stand. "O' co'se they wan't nobody but Blais. ius with his fingers, and I done made dell knowed what was out, but I seen rangements with him 'thouten delay. fm his face what somepin' 'd went hen I got in cahoots with Joe wrong, an I started outside fo my ett, him bein' some capable player bungstørter, but just then that Winterpottom meracle was did. le fo' to be needed, case of any

"They'd been c'nsid'able few new f'ined in of his own notion, not sayin' decks called fo' an' the old ones 'd been much, like he most gen'ly don't, but thrown on the flo' so they was all scattered 'round, an' they was a jack o' hearts laid right nigh Pearsall's foot But Sam Pearsall hadn't been took "He stooped over to tie his shoe, an' he hadn't. I knowed he the next minute that jack o' hearts were a to able good player, but Sam's was in Jake's hand. Nobody seen how yar in spots, an' I wa'n't sure of it was did, but 'twas.

though, "O' co'se Jake was s'prised, but he bein' mo' useful 'n he 'pears to be.
"I've knowed Sam do some tol'able his face straight 'n' give his 'tention' fine work into the game when some to what they was fo' him to do. O' fool started rough house 'long o' some co'se, that was to git rid o' that sixth play what he couldn't onderstand. He cyard. Th' on'y way he c'd do it ain't no sich artist as Blaisdell when 'thouten bein' saw, was to put it up it comes to dealin' the cyards, nor he his sleeve an' he done it. That'd a ain't no sich master hand as Bassett been all right, on'y later on it slipped. into rough an' tumble, but he sho' is "Afo' that, though, things was did-din' some rapid. Bassett bet out "Fo' one thing he 'pears to have Shorty rose it. The hig feller dropped reel human 'ntelligence 'bout raisin' an' Jake shoved his hull pile in the on to a busted flush or a nine high, pot. Bassett folded an' Shorty called case of a tie between one o' the house Jake showed down an' reached fo' the players an' a outsider. O' co'se, that | pot.

es a chanst fo' another boost, "Then the cyard slipped an' Shorty thereby puttin' the fear o' the Lawd pulled both his guns. That is, he had right down into the outsider's innards. em half way outen his pockets afo' "An' then case of a fight Sam Sam Pearsall c'd git a holt of his two Come gen'ly stands back, first off. He ain't arms f'm behint.

to shoot first, nor he ain't liable "Squire Hapgood done seen everyto do no heavy sluggin', not bein' built 'thin', but bein's he wa'n't in it, an' him thin', but bein's he wa'n't in it, an' him bein' peaceable nachuily, he done ighly efficatory bout the way he leaned back an kep' still. The Squire's grips a man's arm f'm behint an' got a heap o' sense, sometimes.

twists him up so 's 't he can't git at ! "But they was mo' comin'. Peared hip pocket, or trips him up when like they was a heap o' c'nfusion all of he's tryin' to make a rush. 'Pears a suddint. Jake was too busy rakin like that's his p'tic'lar line, an' he sho in the pot to be payin' much 'tention a artist into it. I dunno but what an' they didn't 'pear to be nothin he c'n 'xert nigh 'bout 's much moral special for Bassett an' Blaisdell to do Finasion that away 's I kin with a seein' Sam was holdin' Shorty, but the big feller 'peared to wake up onex-But them things about a man has pected, an' he breaks loose two or to be learned grajal, an' I hadn't saw three ways to oncet. 'Peared like he Sam, them days, to put was all over the room, interferin' with much conf'dence into him. That was everybody, afo' anybody seen what he I how come he wa'n't settin' in at that done left his seat. "I seen what somepin' had to be did p'tic'lar game what I'm a tellin' 'bout. Mebbe if he had a been things quick, and I fetched a swipe at him wouldn't a went 's fur 's they did afo' with the bungstarter what'd a wiped they was straightened out. But then him out if it 'd a hit, but luckily it if he'd a been into the game didn't. It mought a made a scandal if 'tain't likely that thar meracle what he'd a been kilt. But Sam tripped him saved we uns wouldn't a been did, an' up an' he fell. Then Bassett landed he Scripchal 'njunction wouldn't a on top of him an' all was over. been justified what says 'All things

"A'ter that Sam al'ays played fo' is put together good fo' them what the house."

"Sam wa'n't settin' in, like I said, TO RESTORE INDIAN NAMES. but he was settin' by, watchin' the game, an' he done a stunt what win Bill to Be Introduced in Congress m gre't d'stinction' an' qualified him to Make Change in Montana. e p'sition o' house player, what SEATTLE, Sept. 18.—Blackfoot Indian he's done helt ever sinc't, with credit names are to be substituted for the white men's names in Montana in a bill has one gre't talent to be presented to Congress this year, according to James Willard Schultz, auwhat he don't exercise, on'y on special designs, not wantin' to make it chapleyous like. He c'n flip a cyard mywheres within ten foot, so quick they can't nobody see his hand nor the cyard movin', but the cyard'll be right whar he p'poses to put it. Sho' c'aspicyous like. He c'n flip a cyard tains, rivers and peaks receive the names of white men.

Sam ain't one to vaunt hisself, but "One day this summer," he said, "a of he's put to it he c'n make the pret-tlest deal a man'd want to see. Don't make no special effo't, 's fur's anybody tional Park. He wanted to name somebut ev'ry cyard what he thing. A falls there had as yet received throws out 'll fall right where it 'd no name. So the name is if all the players 'd assembled their daughter Frances was used.

beautiful lake, McDermott Lake, Likewise on this September morn, hands ready fo' to pick 'em up. Each lay top o' the others like they would, according to the new order, rebut it sho' is a gre't 'complishein' what mountain would be called Little Dog Mountain.

I hain't no p'tic'lar value to it into ment, bein' what mought be called a "The white names mean nothing," exdidn't none on us know nothin' 'bout the Indians would give would be exPOEMS WORTH READING.

Harvest Time This is the climax of the perfect year The winter's cold, the promise of the spring. The summer days, which joy and All find fruition and fulfilment here.

The yellow grain, which rippled glad and In every vagrant wind, whose Than all the minted gold earth holds in store. Has given its treasure to the reaper' scythe

With gold and crimson fruit the tree The stately corn lifts high its ripened field and garden waiting riches grow.

And laughing earth bids man forge his fears. Somewhere her harvest blessing rests upor

NINETTE M. LOWATER. "Where Cooling Waters Flow." O shower bath, where cooling waters flow, There's he who hath not scrubbed since swimming Joys Creekward did urge him, back in 'eightythree!

But I will praise thee while I keep my generally. Campanology probably knows way. long apogee. HENRY S. WHITEHEAD.

The Search. Where steeps eternal slope to night

A lonely spirit came; Upon the crag's sheer looming brink He broke the dark like finne

From starless depths an unward breatly What seek ye here where never votes Or plea of man was heard?

And through the echoing dusk a ery: "I am the first of those Whose feet shall pass all barriers

On starry tides was tossed. I seek, though seek I evermore. To find a love I lost!" ARTHUR WALLACE PEACE

From the Washington Star

man with firm and plercing gaze light haze elgat.

like I was liable 'b' to be I was gwine to git some If it hadn't been fo' a it is imposition o' circumstants in onexpected I dunno what 'a' happened.

'Well, Bassett drawed two, not wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show wantin' to show weakness, an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show wantin' to show weakness an' o' co'se Shorty stood pat. That showed Winterports wantin' to show wantin

A bit of pastry new and then I nibble half afraid, iy word among my fellow men Is instantly obeyed.

The Optimistic Haberdashery Man. From the Haberdanker for September chaps feel we're on our last legs here to-day; il of their howlings could make me feel bad, not even a little bit more:

Did he blame aright? I must Thank him while I live. Was there malice in the thrust? Then I do forgive. Music.

From the Boston Transcript

Just as in haughty chants I fire A race, enslaved, to right its v Mammer and fiall I of inspire To echo my undying songs—

My whisper makes the baby crow, My laughter stirs the lusty boy; I bless the old man's crown of snow, I am the lover's heart of joy....

Unseen, by tone and rhythm I trace, 'Mid star dust or rose spangled sod, Por listening time a path through space From glowworm unto Son of God. WILLIAM STRUTHERS

Adversity. Sweet are its uses, so the great bard sale Go not thou, then, along misfortune's brow bent low and heart down with dread. But stand erect, throw off the loath-Go bravely forth, pluck from its venemed

The precious jewel of the ugly toad. To the Anklet Watch Mermald ray tell me how when you submerge Yourself beneath the sea, The watch is never waterlogged fain would know who made the case

Who packed the stuffing box Around the stem that it admits No water through its locks.

A hundred in the shade, And by what expert made.

The wearer sweetly said, Without works-like your bead.

marine in 1894.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

for tower clock purposes. How long has

Wash Gilson, the son of Sandy Gilson, the old wat r hermit of Mill Rock.

Gal, and many of the old fire lads will recall the chowder Wash made on Sat-tended to Fourth avenue, while Mc-Gowan's Creek at 110th street ran as far

The back water at 104th street exurdays.

On a recent visit to the Burke Foundation at White Plains I noticed that Auction Bridge. N. B. C. says: In playing duplicate, the player to the right should defend a prisoner whom he before players passed, no one observing that the original bid was out of turn until case in which the court protested the tower clock was equipped with five large brass tubes which take the place of the chime of cast bells ordinarily used. This is the first time I've seen tubular chimes of such large dimensions used the first bidder exposed his cards as an this class of chimes been in use and can you or any of your readers cite other instances or give me any information not his bid at all. by the next player, or it stands. If the recognize that his client is guilty, is he regarding the use of tubes for church steeple or tower clock purposes?

CAMPANOLOGY. dealer passed after the player on his Law Notes says on the subject: right started the bidding out of turn Tubes instead of bells for chimes came the bidding proceeds as if it had been its into use in England half a century ago regular, and the hand is void, because places beyond the realm of argument into use in England half a century ago regular, and the hand is void, because the original question. They know that for three reasons: They have a mellower, the proper declarer did not call attenmore musical tone, they take up much tion to the error and declare it void.

SCHOOL FOR CARD PLAYERS.

much less. The tubes at the Burke teams should play a duplicate match.

Foundation, according to the Self-Wind
If this means that the eight players have chosen to defend is such a breach ing Clock Company, which installed are divided into two teams of four the name could be found to commit it.

Moreover, even if a lawyer were himself mensions: Longest, 10 feet 6 inches; Whist League schedule for teams of willing to commit such perfidy the law Inches; wall of the tubes, about half an team always play against the E and of the relation subsisting between attorney and client, would from motives of inch thick. One of the tubes is solely W pair of the other team, and partners public policy effectually seal his lips. to strike the hour. stand; at morn, dispelling drowsy chimes are being made for the new muni- gained on each set of four deals.

The subject of tubular chimes has all a very long suit, the object being to pire?" To this rhetorical question we the interest that pertains to bells induce the partner to get out of the answer simply, 'It can.'" founder cannot predetermine with exactitude the tone of the bell. Generally bells and tubes have to undergo nice modifications after they are finished and it fications after the make sages:

The writer inchios to the belief that every one who receives the belief that every is much easier to alter the tube delicately side spades.

to get just the pitch and tone quality sought than to modify the bell. It should be remembered that the third hand will probably bell. It should be remembered that to get just the pitch and tone Three sure tricks and length are the investigation of the art of the carillon and the subject of change ringing, resuit at the end of a no trumper, no clubs discarded, only five cards to play. place William J. Parker speaks of was known as Conrad's Yorkville Park, the last street leading to it, filled in across the meadows, was Ninety-second street.

A part of First avenue reached here, enclosing Ruger's Pond, at Eighty-ninth street.

From a retaining wall beginning at From a retaining wall beginning at Ninety-third street the salt marsh extended to the present river line, crossed by Second avenue. The avenue was supplayed, there should not be much danger by Second avenue. The avenue was supplayed, there should not be much danger refused to permit the jury to taste some orted by arches known as First and second Arches, through which flowed of losing the acc. If the declarer does declarer hesitates what to play, where- the trial was had." Here Clinton Fire Engine 41 kept a crack catboat they called the Yallar upon dummy says: "Hurry up. You know what you can get. These two hearts are good any time." What is the penalty for such a remark, there being comment in Fall Creek Sheep Co. vs. no evidence that the declarer knew the two hearts were good? A bets he can prevent the lead of the hearts.

Walton on the effect of ing to trespassing hogs:

"The man who drew Dummy's remark must be construed inland as Fifth avenue and made fine fields for skating, the rise and fall of the tide often making getting off and on ral decoration this Psyche is perfect," says von Mach. "Studied close at hand it is very disappointing. The body is indicated by graceful outlines but there is no fine modelling anywhere."

opens, and without waiting for B, C, D and E come in, whereupon B calls attention to the fact that he is not up yet, upon which C remarks, "Well, put up, and draw cards." B says he will not only put up, but will raise it the limit, at which C, D and E take down their For a list of books dealing with the recovery of classic sculptures write B bets their money stays in the pot. recovery of classic sculptures write to the art and architecture section of the New York Public Library.

B bets their money stays in the pot.

B is right. Any chips once placed in the pool must stay there until it is won. If players ante before they know what it the pool must stay there until it is won. If players ante before they know what it they must stand the think ill of our understanding, as Lord to use a pistol for the protection of his family or to prevent an adultery with his wife, or even to take a pistol into his manual possession. In a dissenting a vehicle or operating a street profession to use a pistol for the protection of his family or to prevent an adultery with his wife, or even to take a pistol into his manual possession. In a dissenting a vehicle or operating a street car from crossing either street at fre-In your opinion has Paris been born- will cost them, they must stand the

What is the quantity of air and oxygen that a man needs for breathing every minute, expressed in cubic inches?

M. V. If the bet is simply that the odds In Harris vs. State (Ga.) 85 S. E. mitted the defendant

Many underwater boats had been built before Holland constructed one, of a small bet on the correct card for him wood, in 1877. See any recent encyclo-

NOVEL POINTS OF THE LAW.

against the notion that an attorney is bid first has another chance, as it was a case he knows to be bad. Justice A bid out of turn must be corrected course of a trial for murder comes to

'To lawyers this counter query with s self-evident response effectually less space than bells and they weigh T. C. asks how eight players of two sent of the client or the court, and to Duplicates of the Burke Foundation The match is decided by the points tainer and voluntarily engaging in the defence of an accused person where he has prior to his retention, direct knowldreams:

At eve, when gas usurps the sunset's giow. The cobwebs from my weary brains I blow at down my back thy waters drip in streams.

Washing out literary fancies, due to reams of scratch pads, wasted when the light burned low.

Washing out near St. Louis, Mo. Eighteen miniature this shows six or serven in suit. A says the lead?

Washing out literary fancies, due to reams burned low.

Full many an one hath never known thy form the sucused's own contained and evidence of a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to play reveille and taps at the beginning and end of the workday instead of the new munication of this event, and the happy idea occurred to Prof. Rice the happy idea occurred to Prof. Rice to such a defence of a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to play reveille and taps at the beginning and end of the workday instead of the new munication is a form my weary brains I blow the accused's own contained the happy idea occurred to Prof. Rice to such a defence of a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to undertake it. The pseudo-moralist asks? And Lord Macaulay in his glittering style inquires. 'Can it be right that a man should, with a wing on his players, including J. Against a trump declaration it shows that a man should, with a wing on his players, including J. Against a trump declaration it shows that a man should, with a wing on his percentage.

As a fine of the new munication of this event, the pseudo-moralist to a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to the profession in the secondary that the professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to a professional depravity in the lawyer who will dare to a professio ringing the usual loud gongs. Bells no more afid a desire to ruff the third head and a band around his neck, instead of tubes were placed in the instead of tubes were placed in the that an ace followed by a king shows the appendages, he would think it that an ace followed by a king shows to do for an emround. It is only against a no trumper that an ace followed by a king shows those appendages, he would think it wicked and infamous to do for an empire." To this rhetorical question we layer being to pre." To this rhetorical question we layer by the solution of the solu through thee cause to linger life's that in making a bell the most expert W. L. A. says: The dealer, Z. bids Needesha says: "The writer inclines to can players.

Prof. Rice, who has consented to act

In Central R. R. of N. J. vs. Hirsch, in congress. dummy holding the two top hearts. A says ace; B bets trey.

The ten or nine will shut out dummy.

The ten or nine will shut out dummy.

refused to permit the fury to taste some a stream in which the boys bathed, in not cover the ten, B's partner need not the absence of the police. Two long board walks led from Second avenue to boat houses kept by John McGrath and Wash Gilson, the son of Sandy Gilson, the board walks in the board walks led from Second avenue to boat houses kept by John McGrath and Wash Gilson, the son of Sandy Gilson, the board walks led from Second avenue to boat houses kept by John McGrath and J. B. C. says: Toward the end of the decision "since the record to be cream forming one of the exhibits in the case, the court decising that no abuse of discretion was shown. Law Notes reserves opinion as to the sound-ness of the decision "since the record to be cream forming one of the exhibits in the case, the court decision was shown. Law Notes reserves opinion as to the sound-ness of the decision "since the record to be cream forming one of the exhibits in the case, the court decision was shown. Law Notes reserves opinion as to the sound-ness of the decision "since the record to be cream forming one of the exhibits in the case, the court decision was shown. Law Notes reserves opinion as to the sound-ness of the decision "since the record to be cream forming one of the exhibits in the case, the court decision was shown. Law Notes reserves opinion as to the sound-ness of the decision "since the record to be cream forming one of the exhibits in the case, the court decision was shown. Law Notes reserves opinion as to the sound-ness of the decision "since the record to be cream forming one of the exhibits in the case, the court decision was shown. Law Notes reserves opinion as to the sound-ness of the decision "since the record to be compared to be compared to be considered to be compared to be comp the hand dummy is in the lead, but the does not show at what time of the year

Chief Justice Allshie of the Supreme Walton on the effect of a statute relat-

"The man who drew the amendment made swine an exception in the laws of inland as Fifth avenue and made fine fields for skating, the rise and fall of the tide often making getting off and on the ice a little risky. Just north of here was a part of the old canal to connect the two rivers, East and North —at $50 a share.

Dummy's remark must be construed find the liws of the law of the play which has made the two hearts good, unless they are the ace and king. The connect the two rivers, East and North —at $50 a share.

habit of wreaking his malice on those who stole rides on the freight trains of his codefendant? Such strained and un-reasonable views 'would make posterity office of the county of his residence and think ill of our understanding,' as Lord obtain a license, before he is permitted happened that in this particular case

In your opinion has Paris been bombarded in the present war? A says yes—in the latter part of September, by an aeroplane. B says no—the commonly accepted idea of a bombardment being one by artillery. A SUN READER.

Presumably the military definition of a bombardment has been extended to include air attacks where they are made by a concerted force of airships and are of some duration, say half an hour or longer. The Standard Dictionary defining. The United States Mint informed This into," the Century says it means "to throw bombs; fine shot and shell at or or into." But a bombardment is a "prolonged assault" (Sandard), or a "continuous attack" (Contum) or a "continuous attack" ( bombardment is a "prolonged assault" (Standard), or a "continuous attack" (Standard), or a "continuous attack" (Century), or a "sustained attack" (Webster's). Won't some reader versed in military science settle the question?

| Continuous attack" (Standard), or a "continuous attack" (Standard), or a "continuous attack" (Century), or a "sustained attack" (Century), or a "sustained attack" (Webster's). Won't some reader versed in military science settle the question?

| Continuous attack" (Standard), or a "continuous attack"

M. V.
On average, a man breathes 686,009 cubic inches of air a day, or 476.388 cubic inches a minute. Of this 21 per cent, is oxygen. Of course man can subsist for rather long periods on air that is much below this in oxygen content—how long depends upon the individual.

Was John P. Holland the inventor and builder of the first submarine? Did not the Lake submarine come into existence years afterward?

Many underwater boats had been with the lake a submarine come into existence years afterward?

M. V.
On average, a man breathes 686,009 given by A are incorrect, that is easy given by A are incorrect, that is easy diven by A are incorrect. It all the det approved and that the act approved and that the act approved and the fellow on the court said: "A fair sample of the reasons given for destroying this or the court said: "A fair sample of the reasons given for destroying this for the court said: "A fair two average trumps, hearts, two small is impending or actually in progress between his wife and a despoiler of his home, or to prohibit a person's use of a small bet on the correct card for him to lead.

If the size of the two-card suits is not material, lead the higher club.

If the size of the two-card suits is not material, lead the higher club.

Is impending or actually in progress between his wife and a despoiler of his home, or to prohibit a person's use of a pistol in any similar case where the deals with a special obligation of an unlawful act kills another, it is manufaughter, airhough he may not have intended the death.—State vs.

Jones, 8. C., 85 S. E. 239.

CHESS FOR PLAYER,

Tournament Being Planned to Mark Twentieth Birthday of Rice Gambit.

begun in this city on January 8, the opening round being scheduled to be played at the Manhattan Chees Club.

It is twenty years since Prof. Isaac L. Rice of New York, scholar, musician and most liberal patron of chess, his name famous throughout the world group of foremost players, including J. R. Capabianca of Hayana, F. J. Marshall of New York, A. A. Alechine of Petrograd, Boris Kostics of Budapest, Eduard Lasker of Chicago, J. W. Showtroit. A. Kupchik, O. Chajes, A. B. Hodges, R. T. Black and J. Bernstein of New York and other leading Ameriaddition to defray the expenses of the tubular chimes used in tower clocks, organs and elsewhere are fundamentally identical with the dangling gold knows what to do whether the third band takes the dealer out of the double performer plays "Home, Sweet Home."

R. H. Mayland, father and son, on the special another suit, to deny the spades. The fourth hand deny the spades. The fourth hand deny the spades. The fourth hand takes the dealer out of the double hand takes the dealer out of the double or not; but to double on nothing more ductor to let the passenger off at the last masters' tournament, played in this cuty in the spring. In case there should be a desire of other strong players, not named above, to enter the tournament, the management would not object to admitting into the ring from the control of the standing on the steps of a vestical control of the last masters' tournament, played in this cuty in the spring. In case there should be a desire of other strong players, not named above, to enter the tournament, the standing on the steps of a vestical control of the last masters' tournament, played in the Willoughby street, Brooklyn, are the craftsmen whose chimes are best known in this country. The study of chimes and their construction should lead to investigation of the art of the carillon and the subject of change ringing, revalue of $400, $250, $150, $100 and $75, while non-prise winners will get their daily incidental expenses as well as a investigation of the art of the carillon and the subject of change ringing, recently mentioned in explaining the term is the correct lead for B? Dummy holds be the cight four decide a bet, what is the correct lead for B? Dummy holds to the cight four decide a bet, what is the correct lead for B? Dummy holds to the cight four decide a bet, what is the correct lead for B? Dummy holds from liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form liability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving, and a State statute exempted the company form lability for injury to a passenger from going upon the platform when the car was moving and a State statute exempted the company form lability for injury to a p

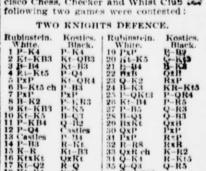

The Hungarian master Boris Kostics acted as umpire in a game played by telephone between the San Francisco player Drouillard and the Los Angeles amateur Lewis. After forty-two moves judicated a win for black. nished an exhaustive analysis, which, herewith appended:

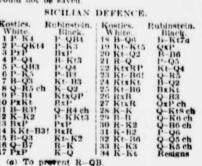

helds for shating, the rise and fall of shating, the rise and fall of the feed making specified and and the feed making specified and and the feed making specified and the free was a part of the old canning specified and the feed making specified right because it had stood by and per-mitted the defendant to spend a large Where accused attacked another in-

At the newly established San Fran-cisco Chess, Checker and Whist Club

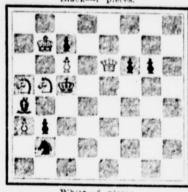

PROBLEM NO. 598. BY B. BOSCH. Back-S pieces

White to play and mate in three moves. PROBLEM NO. 599. BY J. J. RITTVELD.

White to play and mate in two moves END GAME STUDY NO. 56. BY F. MOELLER.

